Reference Portfolio

The Coherent Global Commodity Investment Portfolio (the "Reference Portfolio") is a ZAR (the "Reference Portfolio Currency") denominated reference portfolio, created, advised on, and maintained by the Reference Portfolio Advisor and benchmarked against Bloomberg Commodity Index (Bloomberg page: BCOM Index) in accordance with the provision in the description of the Reference Portfolio (the "Reference Portfolio Description") in Annex 1.

The Reference Portfolio aims to replicate the performance of:

- (ii) long only positions in securitised products (each a "Securitised Product Constituent") comprised in the Securitised Product Investment Universe,
- (iii) positions in synthetic currency accounts with positive notional cash balances (each a "Synthetic Currency Account Constituent") comprised in the Synthetic Currency Account Investment Universe,

The Cash Position together with the Constituents shall be referred to as the "Reference Portfolio Components".

The performance of the Reference Portfolio will be net of the relevant fees and costs described herein.

The notional value of the Reference Portfolio on the Pricing Date is the Initial Reference Portfolio Level.

Whilst the Reference Portfolio Level and the Redemption Amount is linked to the value of the Reference Portfolio Components, the Issuer may or may not invest the proceeds of the issuance of the Portfolio Notes in any Reference Portfolio Component at any time for the purposes of hedging its obligations under this Product. In the event the Issuer elects to invest the proceeds in any Reference Portfolio Component for the purpose of hedging its obligations under this Product, the holders of the Portfolio Notes will not have any direct interest or beneficial ownership in any Reference Portfolio Component at any time. Therefore, the holders of the Portfolio Notes do not have any voting rights in respect of any Reference Portfolio Component.

Investors should understand that the sole responsibility and legal duty to manage the Reference Portfolio (in compliance with the rules and provisions contained in the Product Documentation and as set out herein) is with the Reference Portfolio Advisor.

Redemption

Redemption Amount	Each Portfolio Note entitles the investor to receive on the Maturity Date an amount in the Settlement Currency, as calculated by the Calculation Agent, according to the following formula:
-------------------	---

$$\text{Denomination} \times \text{Max}\left(\text{Floor}, \frac{\text{Final Reference Portfolio Level}}{\text{Initial Reference Portfolio Level}}\right)$$

"Floor " = 2.00%

"Final Reference Portfolio Level" means the Reference Portfolio Level as determined by the Calculation Agent on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date (as applicable) and subject to Unwind Disruption, as the sum of:

- i) the notional unwind proceeds as converted into the Settlement Currency where applicable, using the prevailing currency exchange rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion, that would be realized by a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) when selling and/or unwinding the prevailing Constituents comprising the Reference Portfolio; and
- ii) the value of the Cash Position minus any accrued but not yet deducted Rebalance Fee and Reference Portfolio Fee.

In the event that a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) would be unable to unwind its positions in the Constituents by or on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date due to the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event, market closure or otherwise, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion (such event an "Unwind Disruption"), the Issuer reserves the right to postpone the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date.

In the event that a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) may be required to unwind its positions in all Constituents over multiple days due to the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event, market closure or otherwise, then the final Expiration Date, the final Early Termination Date or the final Automatic Early Termination Date (as applicable) shall be the date on which the last Constituent may be unwound. Please note that the Redemption Amount may be less than the initially invested capital.

Early Termination by Issuer

The Issuer is entitled to terminate the Portfolio Notes early each calendar quarter (i.e. as of each 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December of each year) (the "Early Termination Date") in full subject to at least 30 Business Days prior notice being given to the investors (provided in each case if such day is not a Business Day, then the immediately following Business Day shall be the Early Termination Date). The first possible Early Termination Date will be 31 March 2022. There is no early termination right for the investor in the Portfolio Notes.

Automatic Early Termination

Should the Reference Portfolio Advisor cease to be or to act as the Reference Portfolio Advisor the Product will automatically terminate (the "Automatic Early Termination") on the Weekday immediately following the date on which such event occurs (the "Automatic Early Termination Date"), unless the Calculation Agent determines, in its sole discretion, that the Automatic Early Termination Date shall occur on the day on which such event occurs. No notice period shall apply in that case.

Reference Portfolio Level

Except on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Reference Portfolio Level in its sole and reasonable discretion in respect of each Weekday, subject to a Market Disruption Event (each a "Reference Portfolio Calculation Date").

The Reference Portfolio Level in respect of each Reference Portfolio Calculation Date is the sum of (i) the closing price or value of each Constituent on such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date (taking into account the number of units of each Constituent in respect of which the Reference Portfolio has exposure), and (ii) the value of the Cash Position, all of the above as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion.

Reference Portfolio Value ("RPV")

Reference Portfolio Value means Reference Portfolio Level, as defined above

Intra-day Reference Portfolio Level ("iRPL")

Except on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Intra-day Reference Portfolio Level in its sole and reasonable discretion in respect of each Weekday, at multiple intervals during the Weekday, subject to a Market Disruption Event (each a "Intra-day Reference Portfolio Calculation").

The iRPL in respect of each Intra-day Reference Portfolio Calculation is the sum of (i) the prevailing price or value of each Constituent at such Intra-day Reference Portfolio Calculation (taking into account the number of units of each Constituent in respect of which the Reference Portfolio has exposure), and (ii) the value of the Cash Position, all of the above as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion.

The iRPL will be published on the UBS KeyInvest South Africa website at <http://keyinvest-za.ubs.com>.

Where the sum of absolute Exposures to Constituents which are no longer continuously available on an actively traded public market exceeds 10%, the iRPL will not be published.

The Final Reference Portfolio Level shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the provisions under "Redemption Amount" above.

Adjustments, Disruptions & Termination

Adjustments to the composition of the Reference Portfolio	Notwithstanding the Market Disruption Events provisions below, if, at any time, an event occurs in relation to a Constituent which the Calculation Agent determines requires an adjustment(s) to be made to the composition of the Reference Portfolio, then the Calculation Agent shall (i) determine which adjustment(s) are to be made to the Constituent with a view to account for the effect of the relevant event and to preserve the prevailing composition of the Reference Portfolio immediately prior to the occurrence of such event and (ii) determine the date on which such adjustment(s) shall take effect.
Market Disruption Event(s)	A Market Disruption Event means, in relation to a Constituent (or an Eligible Constituent in respect of a Rebalancing only), the occurrence or existence on any calendar day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) or on any number of consecutive calendar days (other than a Saturday or Sunday) any one or more of the following events: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) a limitation, suspension, or disruption of trading in any Constituent (or component of any Constituent) imposed by the Exchange or the Related Exchange;(ii) the closing or settlement price for any Constituent (or component of any Constituent) is a "limit price", which means that the closing or settlement price for such Constituent for a day has increased or decreased from the previous day's closing price by the maximum amount permitted under applicable rules of the Exchange or the Related Exchange;(iii) failure by the Exchange, the Related Exchange or other price source as applicable to announce or publish the closing or settlement price in respect of any Constituent (or component of any Constituent);(iv) the Exchange or the Related Exchange for any Constituent fails to open for trading during its regular trading session;(v) the closure on any Exchange Business Day of any Exchange or Related Exchange in respect of any Constituent (or component of any Constituent), prior to its Scheduled Closing Time;(vi) any event (other than an early closure as described above) that disrupts or impairs (as determined by the Calculation Agent) the ability of market participants in general to effect transactions in, or obtain market values for any Constituent (or any Eligible Constituent in respect of a Rebalancing only or component thereof);(vii) an FX Disruption Event has occurred; if in the determination of the Issuer or Calculation Agent, any such event is material.
Consequences of a Market Disruption Event	The consequences of a Market Disruption Event are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(A) In the event that the Calculation Agent determines that a Constituent Business Day is a Disrupted Day with respect to a Constituent (or an Eligible Constituent, as the case may be) selected by the Reference Portfolio Advisor for the purposes of a Rebalancing, then such Constituent shall not be notionally sold or purchased on the intended effective date of the relevant Rebalancing.

- (B) In the event that the Calculation Agent determines that any Reference Portfolio Calculation Date is a Disrupted Day with respect to any Constituent, then for the purposes of determining the Reference Portfolio Level as at such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date, (a) the price of each Constituent not affected by the occurrence of such Disrupted Day shall be the closing price of such Constituent, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion and (b) the price of each Constituent affected by the occurrence of such Disrupted Day shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in its good faith estimate of the fair market value (which may be zero) of such Constituent as of such Reference Portfolio Calculation Date.
- (C) If the Calculation Agent determines that the date scheduled to be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Constituent, such date shall be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, for those Constituents which are not affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day while the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, for any Constituent that is affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day shall be postponed to the following Constituent Business Day with respect to such Constituent. If in respect of such Constituent the Disrupted Day is persisting for up to 8 (eight) Constituent Business Days immediately following the date scheduled to be the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, the price of such Constituent shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to its good faith estimate of the value for such Constituent on that eighth Constituent Business Day.
- (D) On the occurrence of an FX Disruption Event, the value of any Constituent not denominated in the Settlement Currency shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion and the Calculation Agent shall have the right to adjust the value of the Reference Portfolio to account for such FX Disruption Event.

Disrupted Day	Any day on which the Calculation Agent determines that, in relation to a Constituent or Eligible Constituent, a Market Disruption Event has occurred.
FX Disruption Event	An FX Disruption Event means (i) an event that generally makes it illegal, impossible, impractical or inadvisable to convert 1 (one) unit of the currency in which any non-ZAR denominated Constituent is denominated (the “ Denomination Currency ”) into the Settlement Currency, or an event that generally makes it impossible to deliver the Settlement Currency from accounts in which they are held to accounts outside of the jurisdiction of the Denomination Currency; (ii) the general unavailability to exchange the Settlement Currency at a spot rate (applicable to the purchase of the Settlement Currency for the Denomination Currency) in any legal currency exchange market in the principal financial centre for the Denomination Currency, if, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the occurrence of any such events is material; or (iii) the government of a relevant Constituent gives public notice of its intention to impose any capital controls which the Calculation Agent determines in good faith are likely to materially affect the Issuer’s ability to hedge its position under the Product.
Price Source Disruption Event	It may become impossible to obtain the price or level of one or more Constituents during the lifetime of the Product and/or on the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, due to one or more of the price sources normally used in the relevant market for the Constituents being unavailable because an unscheduled bank closure is declared on short notice in the relevant country or due to the occurrence of any other disruption (each a “Price Source Disruption Event”). The Calculation Agent will determine in its sole and reasonable discretion whether a Price Source Disruption Event has occurred. A Price Source Disruption Event may lead to (i) a postponement of the Expiration Date, the Early Termination Date or the Automatic Early Termination Date, as applicable, and therefore of the Redemption Amount, (ii) to the use of an alternative source for the relevant Constituent level and/or (iii) to the unilateral determination of the applicable Constituent level by the Calculation Agent. Such postponement, use of alternative price source and/or determination of the applicable Constituent level by the Calculation Agent may affect, materially or otherwise, the Redemption Amount which the investor will receive.
Reference Rate Adjustment Event	A Reference Rate Adjustment Event is deemed to have occurred if a Reference Rate Component (i) has ceased to be, or will cease to be, available, (ii) is one which a relevant regulatory supervisor has determined is no longer, or as of a specified future date will no longer be, representative of the underlying market and economic reality that such rate is intended to measure, or (iii) is no longer suitable for the purpose of determining the Reference Rate taking into account the accrual rate or cost of financing incurred or charged by the Issuer, in each case as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion.

Account Reference Rate Adjustment Event

An Account Reference Rate Adjustment Event is deemed to have occurred if an Account Reference Rate Component (i) has ceased to be, or will cease to be, available, (ii) is one which a relevant regulatory supervisor has determined is no longer, or as of a specified future date will no longer be, representative of the underlying market and economic reality that such rate is intended to measure, or (iii) is no longer suitable for the purpose of determining the Account Reference Rate taking into account the accrual rate or cost of financing incurred or charged by the Issuer, in each case as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion.

Significant Risks for Investors

Investors in this Product should be experienced investors and familiar with both derivative products and the financial markets. Potential investors should understand the risks associated with an investment in the Product and shall only reach an investment decision after careful considerations with their legal, tax, financial and other advisors of (i) the suitability of an investment in the Product in the light of their own particular financial, fiscal and other circumstances (ii) the information set out in this document and (iii) the Underlying(s).

In addition to the market risk with regard to the development of the Underlying, each investor bears the general risk that the financial situation of the Issuer could deteriorate ("Issuer Risk"). The Products constitute immediate, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, which, particularly in case of insolvency of the Issuer, rank pari passu with each and all other current and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, with the exception of those that have priority due to mandatory statutory provisions. The general assessment of the Issuer's creditworthiness may affect the value of the Products. This assessment generally depends on the ratings assigned to the Issuer or its affiliated companies by rating agencies such as Moody's, Fitch and Standard & Poor's. The Issuer Rating indicated in this document reflects the situation at the time of issuance and may be subject to change. The actual Issuer Rating at any given time can be seen on the Issuer's website (www.ubs.com) under "Investor Relations".

In addition to the risk factors below, further risk factors are set out in the UBS Swiss Base Prospectus for the Issuance of Securities.

Risks & Additional Information

Capital Protection (at Expiry)	None, but the Product has a Floor
Risk Potential in comparison to a direct investment in the Reference Portfolio	The risk potential is similar to a direct investment in the assets contained in the notional Reference Portfolio, subject to the Floor.
Issuer Call right	Yes; additionally, an Automatic Early Termination may occur.
Deleverage Event	None
Currency Risk	As the Settlement Currency is different from the currency in which some or all assets contained in the notional Reference Portfolio are denominated, the value of this Product is exposed to the corresponding currency exchange rates.
Extraordinary Termination Risk	The Issuer may terminate and redeem the Product prior to the Expiration Date in accordance with the Indicative Product Documentation.. In case of such extraordinary termination, the Issuer shall pay to the investors an extraordinary termination amount as determined by the Calculation Agent which is equivalent to the market value of the Product, less any costs, and subject to the Floor. Potential investors should note that the extraordinary termination amount may deviate from and may be considerably below the amount which would be payable pursuant to the final redemption provisions on the date that would have otherwise been the scheduled Maturity Date if such termination did not occur. Investors are not entitled to request any further payments after the termination of the Product.
Risks specific to derivatives-based strategies	Derivatives-based strategies aim to provide non-linear exposure to a particular asset. The objectives of such strategies may include, but are not limited to, providing defensive exposure to the equity markets through a systematic put underwriting strategy, or providing incremental yield enhancement to equity market exposure through a systematic call overwriting strategy.

Such strategies will not only have exposure to the underlying asset (e.g. the equity market), but also to other factors such as, but not limited to, volatility, interest rates and dividends, where applicable.

Such strategies typically employ leverage, and therefore investors should be familiar with the risks relating to leverage. Furthermore, where such strategies have exposure to global securities and assets, they will be subject to currency risk.

Investors should be aware of all the risks associated with such strategies. Further details on any risk factors associated with such strategies may be found in the relevant manual, methodology, or similar documentation of such strategies. This may include the documentation of a UBS-issued security referencing such strategies.

Illiquidity Risk in Secondary Market

The Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, intends, under normal market conditions, to provide bid and/or offer prices for this Product on a regular basis. However, the Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, makes no firm commitment to provide liquidity by means of bid and/or offer prices for this Product, and assumes no legal obligation to quote any such prices or with respect to the level or determination of such prices.

Potential investors therefore should not rely on the ability to sell this Product at a specific time or at a specific price. Potential investors should note that prices quoted typically include a spread and therefore may deviate from the market value of the Product. In special market situations, where the Issuer is completely unable to enter into hedging transactions, or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices in the secondary market may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer. Hence, investors might sell at a price considerably lower than the actual price of the Product at the time of its sale. By selling the Product in the secondary market investors may receive less than the capital invested.

Potential investors also understand that no active or liquid market is expected to exist to enable sales of the Product between or among holders. Furthermore, no third party is expected to quote prices or otherwise make a market for this Product. In addition, the price of the Product may be dependent upon information known only to the Issuer and/or Lead Manager. As such, potential investors should understand that they may be unable to transfer the securities for value without the cooperation of the Issuer and/or Lead Manager, which may not be provided.

In case of a secondary market transaction, there is a possibility that costs, including taxes, related to or in connection with the Product may arise for investors that are not paid by the Issuer or imposed by the Issuer.

Market Disruption risk

Investors are exposed to Market Disruption Events (such as trading disruption, exchange disruption and early closure of the relevant exchange), which could have an impact on the redemption amount through delay in payment, change in value or suspension of trading in the Product in the secondary market.

Calculation Agent's Discretion

The Calculation Agent has a broad discretionary authority to make various determinations and adjustments under the Products, any of which may have an adverse effect on the value and/or the amounts payable under the Products. Prospective investors should be aware that any determinations made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Products. Where the Calculation Agent is required to make a determination it may do so without taking into account the interests of the holders of the Product.

Risk relating to Reference Portfolio Advisor's Discretion

The performance of the Product is largely dependent on the skill and decisions made by the Reference Portfolio Advisor. Decisions made by the Reference Portfolio Advisor may not always be profitable and therefore may have a material adverse impact on the value of this Product. Moreover, past performance of other products managed by the Reference Portfolio Advisor does not guarantee future positive performance of this Product.

The Issuer does not guarantee the quality, experience, track record or performance of the Reference Portfolio Advisor. The Issuer is not in any manner responsible or liable for any loss resulting from the performance of the Reference Portfolio Advisor. The Issuer does not imply its endorsement or recommendation of the Reference Portfolio Advisor and the Product.

One or more key individuals employed by the Reference Portfolio Advisor play a key role in the delivery of services provided by the Reference Portfolio Advisor, and accordingly the unexpected departure or absence of such individual(s) may materially affect the Reference Portfolio Advisor's ability to deliver such services, including in respect of the services it provides in connection with this Product.

Withholding Tax

Investors in this Product should note that any payment under this Product may be subject to withholding tax (such as, inter alia, Swiss Withholding Tax, and/or withholding related to FATCA or 871(m) of the US Tax Code). Any payments due under this Product are net of such tax.

Regarding 871(m) investors should note that a 30% withholding tax is imposed on certain "dividend equivalents" paid or deemed paid to a non-U.S. holder with respect to a "specified equity-linked instrument" that references one or more dividend-paying U.S. equity securities. The withholding tax can apply even if the instrument does not provide for payments that reference dividends. Treasury regulations provide that the withholding tax applies to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on specified equity-linked instruments that have a delta of one ("delta one specified equity-linked instruments") issued after 2016 and to all dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on all other specified equity-linked instruments issued after 2020.

The Issuer will treat the Products as specified equity-linked instruments that are subject to withholding on dividend equivalents. The Issuer will withhold 30% in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Products and will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such taxes withheld. In respect of any Constituents which are U.S. equity securities, for purposes of determining the amount of a dividend treated as notionally reinvested, such dividend shall be reduced by the 30% withholding tax as referenced under the section "Dividend Treatment" above. The Issuer hereby notifies each holder that for purposes of Section 871(m), the Issuer will withhold in respect of dividend equivalents paid or deemed paid on the Products on the dividend payment date as described in Treasury regulations section 1.1441-2(e)(4) and Revenue Procedure 2017-15 §3.03(B), as applicable. Investors in the Products should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the withholding tax to their Products and the availability of any reduction in tax pursuant to an income tax treaty. No assurance can be given that investors in the Products will be able to successfully claim a reduction in tax pursuant to an income tax treaty.

Please refer to the Indicative Product Documentation for detailed information. If the Issuer is required to withhold any amount pursuant to Section 871(m) or FATCA of the U.S. Tax Code, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amount so withheld.

Annex 1 – Reference Portfolio Description

1 General information about the Reference Portfolio

As described in the section "Description of the Portfolio Notes" of this document, the Reference Portfolio is a notional reference portfolio (denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency), actively created, advised on, and maintained by the Reference Portfolio Advisor.

The Reference Portfolio Advisor has created the Reference Portfolio by selecting the initial Constituents (the "Initial Constituents") on the Pricing Date. The Initial Constituents are listed in Section 4 below.

The Reference Portfolio Advisor is responsible for adjusting the composition of the Reference Portfolio from time to time thereafter (any such adjustment a "Rebalancing") in accordance with Section 5 below. Certain limitations apply as to the composition of the Reference Portfolio from time to time as described in such section and as well in Section 3 below.

The level of the Reference Portfolio (the "Reference Portfolio Level") is calculated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, net of fees and costs associated with the creation, maintenance and rebalancing of the Reference Portfolio, as described the sections "Description of the Portfolio Notes" and "Fees" of this document.

2 Reference Portfolio Investment Universe

The Reference Portfolio, whose composition may vary from time to time, is actively advised by the Reference Portfolio Advisor and represents a notional investment in the Reference Portfolio Components. The Reference Portfolio Advisor may select any securities, assets, exposures or contracts that are part of the Investment Universes described below for inclusion in the notional Reference Portfolio (with such securities, assets, exposures or contracts becoming "Constituents" after inclusion in the Reference Portfolio) in its sole and reasonable discretion pursuant and subject to the provisions contained in this document. The Calculation Agent and/or Lead Manager may retain the right to reject the inclusion of any Eligible Constituent due to any applicable rules, regulations and internal or external restrictions according to the provisions as set out below in Section 3 ("Investment Restrictions") or Section 5 ("Rebalancing of the Reference Portfolio").

The universes below shall together be referred to as the "Investment Universes". In respect of the Investment Universes, all securities, assets, exposures or contracts which are eligible for inclusion in the Reference Portfolio shall collectively be referred to as "Eligible Constituents".

2.1 Securitised Products Constituents

The Reference Portfolio may reference as Securitised Products Constituents long only positions in certain securitised products as described below (the "Securitised Product Investment Universe").

Only securitised products issued by UBS AG may be incorporated as Securitised Products Constituents in the Reference Portfolio.

2.2 Synthetic Currency Account Constituents

The Reference Portfolio may reference as Synthetic Currency Account Constituents positive notional cash balances from the universe described below (the "Synthetic Currency Account Investment Universe").

	Constituent	Currency	Account Reference Rate	Account Spread
1	USD Synthetic Currency Account	USD	United States SOFR Secured Overnight Financing Rate (Bloomberg page: SOFRRATE <Index>) (the " Account Relevant Screen Page ") plus the Account Spread	In respect of positive notional cash balances, 0.00%

The inclusion of Synthetic Currency Account Constituents allows for the execution of notional FX spot transactions to convert between the currencies of various Synthetic Currency Account Constituents. A Synthetic Currency Account Constituents represents a notional holding of a cash account denominated in a specific currency and accruing interest at the prevailing reference rate (the "Account Reference Rate") as shown above, which for the avoidance of doubt will be inclusive of a spread (each an "Account Spread"). The Account Reference Rate is observed on every Weekday.

2.3 Cash Position

The Reference Portfolio will also contain a Cash Position as a Reference Portfolio Component, which represents a notional holding of a cash account denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency and accruing interest at the prevailing reference rate (the "Reference Rate"), which can be negative from time to time.

The Reference Rate is observed on every week day and shall be equal to the South Africa Rand Overnight Deposit Rate (Bloomberg Page: RAONON Index) (the "Relevant Screen Page") plus a spread (the "Spread") (each a "Reference Rate Component").

In respect of a Positive Cash Position, the Spread shall be 0.00% and in respect of a negative Cash Position, the Spread shall be 0.40%.

Upon the occurrence of a Reference Rate Adjustment Event, the Calculation Agent may make adjustments in its sole discretion to (i) any or all of the Reference Rate Components (including for the avoidance of doubt, the Spread), and (ii) the then prevailing formula for determining the Reference Rate, and shall determine the effective date of such adjustment(s).

The value of the Cash Position will thereafter be negatively or positively affected by any fee or any other distribution as described in the section "Fees".

3 Investment Restriction

Constituents may be selected by the Reference Portfolio Advisor for notional purchase or, as the case may be, sale or unwind in accordance with the investment restrictions (the "Investment Restrictions") described below. Unless otherwise stated, any restriction shall apply at all times during the lifetime of the Product.

3.1 Portfolio Investment Restrictions

3.1.1 The sum of the Exposures of all Constituents is capped at a maximum of 100% (the "Leverage Threshold").

3.2 Constituent Investment Restrictions

3.2.1 The Weight of the Cash Position shall be greater than -5%.

3.2.2 The Weight of the Cash Position shall, on average throughout a calendar year, be smaller than 50%.

For the avoidance of doubt: The responsibility and legal duty that the Reference Portfolio complies with the above guidelines is solely with the Reference Portfolio Advisor. The Issuer, Lead Manager or Calculation Agent are not obliged to monitor adherence to the above guidelines, or to inform any parties of any failure by the Reference Portfolio Advisor to adhere to the above guidelines.

3.3 Consequences of Investment Restrictions Breaches

In case any of the above Investment Restrictions are breached at any time during the life of the Product, the Issuer has the right, but is not obliged, to notionally unwind Constituents at its sole and reasonable discretion until no such breach exists. In respect of such notional unwind, a notional credit or debit, as the case may be, shall be made to the Cash Position corresponding to the Notional Net Disposal Value of such Constituents with effect from the date of the notional unwind.

3.4 Additional Definitions

"Weight" means, with respect to the Pricing Date or any Weekday and pertaining to any Reference Portfolio Component, the notional value of such Reference Portfolio Component divided by the Reference Portfolio Level, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion.

"Exposure" means, with respect to the Pricing Date or any Weekday and pertaining to any Constituent, the notional exposure in the Reference Portfolio Currency of such Constituent, as converted into the Reference Portfolio Currency, where such Constituent is not denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, divided by the Reference Portfolio Level, both as determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion.

"Holdings" means, with respect to the Pricing Date or any Weekday and pertaining to an ETF Constituent, the Weight of such Constituent, multiplied by the Reference Portfolio Level and by the prevailing number of outstanding Portfolio Certificates, all as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion.

4 Initial Composition of the Reference Portfolio

The Reference Portfolio was created on the Pricing Date with an initial value equal to the Initial Reference Portfolio Level. On the Pricing Date, the Constituents were as set out below.

	Bloomberg Ticker	Reference Portfolio Component	Base Currency	Weight
1	ZAR Currency	Cash position	ZAR	100%
	TOTAL			100%

5 Rebalancing of the Reference Portfolio

- 5.1 A Rebalancing may be initiated by the Reference Portfolio Advisor on any Business Day following the Pricing Date, effective as soon as reasonably practicable, as determined by the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager in its sole and reasonable discretion (such day, a "Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date"), subject to the non-occurrence of a Market Disruption Event.

The number of Rebalancings in any such 12 month period is expected to be less than 252.

For the avoidance of doubt, a single Rebalancing may comprise of a change to more than one Constituent, and therefore a change in the position of multiple Constituents which were the result of a single Rebalancing instruction by the Reference Portfolio Advisor shall be considered as one Rebalancing.

- 5.2 On any Business Day, the Reference Portfolio Advisor may, as it deems appropriate in its sole and reasonable discretion, give notice to the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager of its intention to initiate a Rebalancing on such day (a "Rebalancing Notice"), to be effective on the Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date.

Save as the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager may otherwise agree, a Rebalancing Notice shall not be effective if, at the time of such Rebalancing Notice is received, a Rebalancing in respect of any Rebalancing Notice received earlier has not yet been completed or otherwise rejected. For the purposes hereof, a Rebalancing is deemed completed upon notification by the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager to the Reference Portfolio Advisor, with respect to the relevant Rebalancing, of the relevant Notional Net Acquisition Value of each Constituent notionally included in the Reference Portfolio, the Notional Net Disposal Value(s) of each Constituent notionally removed from the Reference Portfolio and the Weight or Exposure of each applicable Constituent notionally comprised in the Reference Portfolio following the relevant Rebalancing.

- 5.3 Should the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager determine that a Rebalancing shall be effective over multiple days (for example in the scenario where some Constituents or Eligible Constituents, as the case may be, referenced in a Rebalancing may be notionally acquired or unwound on a Constituent Business Day and other Constituents or Eligible Constituents, as the case may be, referenced in the same Rebalancing may be notionally acquired or unwound on a subsequent (immediately following or otherwise) Constituent Business Days), then despite the effective date covering multiple Constituent Business Days, it shall be treated as a single Rebalancing.

- 5.4 The Calculation Agent or Lead Manager will determine the exact number of units for each Constituent based on prevailing market conditions, including currency exchange rates when relevant, in its sole and reasonable discretion. Such number may deviate from the target weight or exposure recommended by the Reference Portfolio Advisor.

- 5.5 On each Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date, notional debits and credits to the Cash Position shall be made as follows:

- (i) In respect of the notional acquisition of exposure to a Constituent, a notional debit or credit, as the case may be, shall be made to the Cash Position corresponding to the Notional Net Acquisition Value of such Constituent, with effect from the date of the notional acquisition of exposure to such Constituent; and
- (ii) In respect of the notional unwind of exposure to a Constituent, a notional debit or credit, as the case may be shall be made to the Cash Position corresponding to the Notional Net Disposal Value of such Constituent, with effect from the date of the notional unwind of exposure to such Constituent.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the notional acquisition or unwind of exposure to a Constituent results in the notional credit or debit to the Cash Position and such Constituent is not denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, then the Calculation Agent will apply the prevailing currency exchange rate, as determined in its sole and reasonable discretion determine the value of the notional credit or debit to the Cash Position.

- 5.6 The Calculation Agent or Lead Manager is entitled, but has no legal duty, to accept or refuse the notional acquisition or unwind of exposure to any Constituent. Furthermore, the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager is entitled to require the Reference Portfolio Advisor to initiate a Rebalancing in certain circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

- 5.6.1 The Reference Portfolio Advisor has selected a security, asset, exposure or contract for inclusion in the notional Reference Portfolio which is not part of the respective Investment Universes;

- 5.6.2 The Reference Portfolio is, or following the relevant Rebalancing would, breach any of the Investment Restrictions or any other rule or provision contained herein;
- 5.6.3 A Market Disruption Event (which includes a FX Disruption Event) has occurred in respect of the relevant Constituent on the relevant Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date;
- 5.6.4 The Calculation Agent determines that a Hedging Disruption has occurred in relation to the Constituent. In this paragraph, "Hedging Disruption" is deemed to have occurred if it would not be reasonably practicable or it would otherwise be undesirable, for any reason, for a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) to (i) close, continue or carry out transactions or acquire, exchange, hold or sell assets (respectively) which at the reasonable discretion of such notional investor are needed by such notional investor in order to provide protection against price risk or other risks with regard to obligations under the Products, or (ii) realise, reclaim or pass on proceeds from such transactions or assets (respectively) under conditions which are economically substantially equal to those on the issue date of the Products, as determined by the Calculation Agent, in its reasonable discretion. Such reasons may include, but are not limited to (a) any material illiquidity in the market for any Constituent or Eligible Constituent, (b) a change in any applicable law (including, without limitation, any tax law) or the promulgation of, or change in, the interpretation of any court, tribunal or regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of any applicable law (including any action taken by a taxing authority), or (c) the general unavailability of market participants who would agree to enter into any such hedging transaction on commercially reasonable terms or at all; and
- 5.6.5 The Calculation Agent or Lead Manager determines that it would not be reasonably practicable for a notional investor in the same position as the Issuer to make purchases and/or sales of the Constituent(s), as the case may be, due to compliance, regulatory, reporting or reputational constraints, take-over considerations, internal restrictions or lack of internal approval.

In the event that the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager requires the Reference Portfolio to initiate a Rebalancing such that the Reference Portfolio complies with the foregoing, the Reference Portfolio Advisor shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable and without undue delay, initiate a Rebalancing such that the Reference Portfolio complies with the foregoing as at the immediately following Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date. The Reference Portfolio Advisor has no right to object to such Rebalancing required by the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager.

Notwithstanding the entitlements of the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager under this paragraph, the sole responsibility and legal duty to advise the Reference Portfolio in compliance with the rules and provisions contained in this document is with the Reference Portfolio Advisor.

- 5.7 As soon as is reasonably practicable after receipt of an effective Rebalancing Notice on a Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date, and subject to any rejection, the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager shall notify the Reference Portfolio Advisor of (a) the Notional Net Acquisition Value and/or Notional Net Disposal Value applicable to each Constituent that is subject to the Rebalancing and (b) the Exposure of each Constituent comprised in the Reference Portfolio as a result of the Rebalancing. Upon receipt by the Reference Portfolio Advisor of such notice from the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager, the Rebalancing shall be binding and conclusive on the Reference Portfolio Advisor in the absence of manifest error.

For the avoidance of doubt, a proposed Rebalancing shall be effective only if and to the extent that the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager, on the Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date on which the relevant Rebalancing Notice is given, notifies to the Reference Portfolio Advisor the information mentioned in (a) and (b) above. Should a proposed Rebalancing not be fully effective on a Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date, subject to clause 5.3, the Reference Portfolio Advisor will be required to deliver one or more further Rebalancing Notices in accordance with the provisions hereof to execute the remainder of the initially proposed Rebalancing.

- 5.8 In this Section:

- (i) "Notional Net Acquisition Value" means, in relation to an Eligible Constituent, the notional price (net of any applicable Rebalance Fee) at which the Calculation Agent determines that a notional investor would be able to notionally acquire exposure to such Constituent (where applicable, on the relevant Exchange) at the execution time on the relevant Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date, as converted into Reference Portfolio Currency where such Constituent is not denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, each as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion; and
- (ii) "Notional Net Disposal Value" means, in relation to a Constituent, the notional price (net of any applicable Rebalance Fee) at which the Calculation Agent determines that a notional investor would be able to notionally unwind exposure to such Constituent (where applicable, on the relevant Exchange) at the execution time on the relevant Reference Portfolio Adjustment Date, as converted into Reference Portfolio Currency, where such Constituent is not denominated in the Reference Portfolio Currency, at the then prevailing currency exchange rate, each as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and reasonable discretion.

6 Adjustments of the Reference Portfolio

- 6.1 If, at any time, any event occurs in relation to any Constituent which the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager determines requires an adjustment(s) to be made to the composition of the Reference Portfolio, then the Calculation

Agent or Lead Manager shall (i) determine which adjustment(s) are to be made to the Reference Portfolio with a view to account for the effect of the relevant event and to preserve the prevailing composition of the Reference Portfolio immediately prior to the occurrence of such event and (ii) determine the date on which such adjustment(s) shall take effect.

Notwithstanding the entitlements of the Calculation Agent or Lead Manager under this paragraph, the sole responsibility and legal duty to advise the Reference Portfolio in compliance with the rules and provisions contained in this document is with the Reference Portfolio Advisor.
